"I never thought anyone could make finances funny, but she does!"
Amy Allen- Orlando, FL

"Marianne has a passion for teaching women on Biblical finances. Her sincere approach will challenge and equip your audience to follow biblical principals in the area of finances."

Charlene Kidd, Author/speaker Proverbs 31 Ministries

"What a ton of ideas! I took so many notes, my hand hurt!"
Danielle Robison-Zionsville, IN

Speaker • Financial Counselor • Consultant

Marianne and her husband of 23 years, Andy, are certified counselors through Crown Financial Ministries. She works with many families throughout the state to help them establish healthy financial principles focused upon bringing stability to the family. In counseling, she provides tools to help get husbands and wives on the same page and to empower them to train their children early in life in the handling of financial resources. She also conducts seminars for high school seniors on finance and debt avoidance.

Marianne is a graduate of Indiana University, a Proverbs 31 "She Speaks" graduate, and a Certified Parenting Instructor. She taught middle school for 8 years prior to becoming a mother of four boys. She led MOPs at Zionsville Presbyterian Church for 7 years, where she helped grow the program into two robust groups of 125 mothers.

She also conducts various parenting workshops throughout many churches and writes articles on a variety of parenting topics.

Speaking Topics:

- Its Not Just You, The Tough Parts of Mothering: This light-hearted talk openly discusses the most difficult parts of mothering that are often left unsaid. Isolation, guilt, lack of confidence and chaos management are just a few of the topics discussed in an entertaining manner.
- Raising Grateful and Content Children: In a culture of more, more, more, this talk teaches parents to focus on "enough." Humorous stories and practical ideas carry listeners on a journey to equip them to raise children who are grateful for what God has provided and content in a world of excess.
- Different Children, Different Needs: Learn how to recognize the unique qualities that each child is born with. Identify these personality traits in each of your children so you can parent more effectively and understand them more completely.
- Siblings Without Rivalry: Create harmony in your home by giving children skills to get along with each other. Learn how to nurture sibling relationships and deal more effectively with teasing, tattling and arguing.
- Get A Grip On Your Finances: Encourages women to avoid budgeting pitfalls, be good stewards of their resources, set goals and find contentment. Learn how to see the role of culture in our financial choices.
- How To Talk So Kids Will Listen: How we speak to our children has a tremendous impact on how our children respond to us. Learn strategies to promote obedience and more positive relationships with your children.
- Other parenting and financial topics available upon request.
